were inclined to think that it as a matter of Government policy desire that Local Bodies also may continue the salary cut irrespective of their individual financial position. the salary cuts need not be restored. I therefore request the favour of your advice in this matter. The present financial position of the Sanitary Board is quite satisfactory.

Yours sincerely,

for Local Self Govt. From the proceedings of the meeting it is seen that the intention was that the Salary cut order should ~~aff~~ be made applicable to Local Fund employees so long as the Govt. themselves kept the Salary cut arrangement. ~~But the decisions of this Commi~~ But no action would appear to have been taken to communicate the decisions arrived at by this Committee, to the Local Bodies.

The question raised by the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar Dist. in the P. & D viz whether as a matter of policy Govt. desire that Local Bodies also may continue the Salary cut irrespective of their individual financial position — is an administrative one to be dealt with in the administrative Secretariat. If approved the file will be transferred thither for Orders.
